

CODE OF CONDUCT ENFORCEMENT

Membership to the Mary C. Winder Community Center is a privilege. We reserve the right to revoke these privileges if any Code of Conduct violations occur. In case of any misconduct or policy violation, the following actions may be taken:

- The staff will ask the participant to stop the behavior.
- If the participant continues the behavior, the Community Center leadership will ask them to leave the premises.
- The participant will not be allowed back on the premises for future visits until they meet with the Community Center General Manager.
- Depending on the severity of the incident, an individual's membership may be terminated or they may be banned from the Community Center.
